

January 2022 Version

Spiritual and Moral Injury Programs and Related ACCTS Ethics Training Contacts

(Email contact information can be requested from ethics@accts.org)

SPIRITUAL and MORAL INJURY DEFINED - Col (Chaplain) Timothy Mallard USA

Link: Wounds of War

Description: Col Mallard, Director of Ethical Development at the US Army War College, serves as an ACCTS contact for Spiritual Injury as well as senior advisor to the ACCTS Journal of Faith and War

PREVENTION: Prevention of Unethical Decisions - LtCol Dean Mills USAF Ret. ACCTS Staff

Link: Preparing for Predictable Ethical Problems

Description: LtCol Mills serves as the ACCTS Ethics Training Director for Preventing Unethical Decisions. He routinely reviews ACCTS Ethics Training products for preventative applications. Currently he is developing a risk assessment/ risk management approach to preventing unethical decisions by young MCF leaders.

RESTORATION: Restoration from Unethical Decisions - LtCol (Chaplain) Bob Collins USA Ret.

Link: Future Link to Collins devotional on restoration from unethical decisions

Description: Chaplain Collins serves as ACCTS Ethics Training Director for Restoration from Unethical Decisions. He routinely reviews ACCTS Ethics Training products for restorative applications. Currently, he and LtCol Noel Dawes (see WHI below) are the primary ACCTS Ethics Training contacts for Moral Injury and Spiritual Injury.

RESTORATION: Welcome Home Initiative - LtCol Noel Dawes British Army Ret., ACCTS Staff

Link: Welcome Home Initiative

Description: Since 2008 LtCol Dawes has led ACCTS efforts in Spiritual Injury Recovery in partnership with the Rev Nigel Mumford, former Royal Marine Commando and founder of the Welcome Home Initiative (WHI). Since 2017 Noel and Meryl have continued to lead the Episcopal Diocese of Albany, NY and ACCTS ministry partnership helping military veterans, chaplains, chaplain assistants, and their families through inner healing retreats addressing moral and soul injuries, especially those primarily caused by war-like experiences.

(Continued on next page)

RESTORATION: REBOOT Ministry
- Col Gerry Potter Canadian
Armed Forces Ret.

Link: REBOOT Ministry

Description: Col Potter, President of the Military Christian Fellowship of Canada, is investigating the use of REBOOT courses and materials to assist the MCF of Canada in their Spiritual Injury Project.

Art by Maj Jeff Hall

RESTORATION: Healing Moral Injury - Col (Chaplain) Jeff Zust USA Ret.

Link: Care for the Sorrowing Soul

Description: Chaplain Zust serves on the ACCTS Ethics Training Team as a primary advisor and contributor to Moral Injury training. His doctoral dissertation on this topic (2022) addressed this issue.

RESTORATION: American Bible Society's Trauma Healing Institute - Anne Gabel & Emanuela Haien, ACCTS Staff Members

Link: Trauma Healing Institute

Description: Anne and Emanuela are investigating the use of American Bible Society's materials on restoration from trauma. Emanuela has completed several ABS lessons concerning this and hopes to make this material available to ACCTS Rocky High young MCF leader participants. Anne is enrolled in an advanced course with the Canadian Bible Society.

RESTORATION: Canadian MCF Spiritual Injury - LtCol (Chaplain) Andrew Whitman Canadian Armed Forces

Links: MCF of Canada FUTURE LINK TO Whitman thesis presentation

Description: Chaplain Whitman is presently a graduate student at a Canadian University studying Moral Injury in preparation for a tour of duty which will allow him to develop Moral and Spiritual Injury materials for use in the Canadian Armed Forces. He serves as the MCF's representative to the Ethics Training Project. In May 2020 the MCF co-hosted a 1 day on-line Moral Injury seminar with Ellel Ministry.

(Continued on next page)

RESTORATION: Cru Military Ministries Combat Trauma -LtCol Martha Jones USAF Ret.

Link: Ministering to Combat Trauma/PTS

Description: Cru Military has developed biblically based resources for service members, their families, and professional and lay counselors who minister to them. Find encouragement and faith in God while facing difficult battles at home and in defense of our country. The Bridges to Healing initiative launched in 2007 to motivate and train churches. LtCol Jones and Cru ARE partners with ACCTS in the Ethics Training Project.

PREVENTION and RECOVERY: Community Mediation Project - CWO Craig Conrad USCG (RET)

Link: Mediation Project

Description: CWO Conrad had a life changing experience with military reconciliation at the 1994 AMCF World Conference and has since then been providing prevention and restoration services worldwide through workshops, coaching and interventions to teach and facilitate peacemaking and reconciliation that is grounded in the mercy, grace and forgiveness that God has granted us in Christ Jesus, with a current emphasis on East African nations.

TO BE DETERMINED: Military Ministries International - MGen Roddy Porter British Army Ret.

Link: Military Ministries International

TO BE DETERMINED: Relational Wisdom 360 (Ken Sande)

Link: Relational Wisdom 360

